

POMEROY TELEGRAPH.

TUESDAY, JUNE 11, 1860.

Contractors will observe by reference to our advertising columns that there will be three bridges offered for sale in July next, by J. F. Brown, Esq., one of the County Commissioners. Make a note of it.

James Ralston, Esq., will supply the farmers of Meigs County, with Kirby's excellent Mowing and Reaping machine. He has sufficient testimonials from farmers of this county to satisfy any person of the excellence of the machine.

Don't forget the meeting of the Republican Club, at the Court-house, on Thursday evening next. Let there be a general turn-out. Keep the ball in motion. Scatter the documents—spread information—reason with your neighbors. The truth must prevail in the end, and the right triumph.

The Fourth of July.
We learn from a patent medicine almanac, that the Fourth of July this year will come in the early part of next month—Would it not be well for the citizens of Pomeroiy to appoint a committee to ascertain the fact and make the necessary arrangements for its reception in case it comes this way?

Auton's Brass Band, from Gallipolis, visited our place on Saturday last, after attending the Mason City Picnic. It is fast gaining popular favor, and we know of no band with equal practice that performs so well. The members are gentlemen of high standing and reliability. We hope they may have occasion to visit our town frequently.

Another terrible storm has swept over a large portion of the West, causing the death of some hundred and fifty persons in various places, and an immense destruction of property. We give a few of the items from some of our exchanges, but have not room for details. Pomeroiy has most happily escaped in all these hurricanes. The scenes in many places were fearful beyond description.

A Great Invention.
Is the "Thermometer Churn," now on exhibition and for sale at Prall & Hatch's. The Churn is so arranged that the required temperature can be given to the cream by aid of the thermometer, without adding water to it. Let no one interested in butter making fail to call and examine this great invention.

Among the many thousands of other articles on hand at this establishment, we noticed a double shovel corn plow, which will be of great service to farmers. It will be to their advantage to examine them.

Prof. H. T. Crawley, of the Mt. Auburn Female Seminary, near Cincinnati, while accompanying a couple of ladies from the city to the Institution, on Thursday night last, stopped to ask an explanation of some rowdies who offered indignities to the ladies as they passed, but no sooner had he reached them than he received a stab, from the effect of which he died in a half hour afterward. The city authorities offer a reward of $500 for the apprehension of the villain who perpetrated the dastardly act.

Who Did It?
On Saturday night last, a splendid band gave a serenade of the choicest music, right by the Editor's sleeping apartment. We don't know who they were, nor who they intended to honor with their touching strains; but if the compliment was intended for us, we thank the unknown musicians, and if for some one else, we still thank them.

There is nothing which so deeply moves us as the sound of sweet music heard in the still hours of the night, in that dreamy state between sleep and waking. Again we thank the unknown dispensers of "sweet sounds."

ARTHUR MERRILL, Pres't.
H. L. SIBLEY, Sec'y.

The "First Grand Picnic Rally," gotten up by the "St. Joseph Young Men's Benevolent Association," of Mason City, under the superintendence of Archbishop Parks, came off on Saturday last, in a beautiful grove, a short distance from the above place.
The excursionists repaired to the grove at an early hour in the morning, accompanied by the Gallipolis Band, and shortly after arriving at the grounds selected for the occasion, foot balls were in active flight—quits flew hither and thither—choruses and songs still more enlivened the spirits of the large crowd—the band discoursed the choicest music, and even the birds of the forest seemed to drink of the sweet strains, and participate in the festivities to their hearts' content.
There was perfect harmony throughout the whole day, a thing that rarely occurs where there are so many nationalities represented. Not a single person was under the influence of ardent spirits, and the utmost decorum was preserved. The greatest credit is due Mr. Parks for his unique management of the affair, both as regards the preservation of order, and the various means afforded for the innocent amusement of guests.

CAPTURE OF A SLAVER WITH FIVE HUNDRED NEGROES.
The Key West correspondent of the New Orleans Picayune, under the date of May 6th, furnishes an account of the capture of the steamer Wildfire on the 26th ult., by the U. S. steamer Mohawk, Lieut. A. M. Craven, commander. The writer says:

The Mohawk sailed from Key West on the 6th of April on a cruise off the eastern end of the Island of Cuba. She steamed about 100 miles off the coast of the Bahamas, occasionally landing and procuring supplies of fish and turtle. She also visited the Lobos Keys, and had two or three exciting chases after a suspicious craft. On the 23d she put in to the harbor of Neuvitas, and remained there until the 25th, when she took the steamer Wildfire, a small schooner, in tow, the weather being calm, and carried her outside of the reefs.
She remained in company with the brig until the next morning, when discovering a sail in the offing, heading for the land, she cast off the brig and made sail for the westward. The vessel, which proved to be a bark, was speedily approached. She was evidently an American built vessel, but having no name upon her stern, she was signaled to show her colors, in response to which the American flag was hoisted.

As the Mohawk ranged alongside, she observed a man in the rigging, who was observed to be a few inches below the deck—a few in number—while the captain and his officers coolly leaned upon the rail, observing the steamer's movements.

She did not look the slaver, but from force of habit, with a spice of curiosity, Capt. Craven ordered Lieut. Carpenter to board her. As the boat approached, it was observed that no rope was thrown out. It was then evident that the visit was not agreeable.

The lieutenant, unassisted, boarded the vessel, and was no sooner on her bulwarks than he waved his sword, and the men in the boat raised a shout—a signal that she was a slaver and a pirate. The moment that the slaves, who had just been driven below, caught sight of the officer's uniform, (the hatchets were covered with greetings only, they sang and clapped their hands with joy; they instinctively knew that their deliverers were at hand. The vessel was once taken possession of by Capt. Craven, a prize crew put on board, the officers and crew transferred to the Mohawk, and taken in tow. They headed for the Florida Keys.

The bark proved to be the Wildfire, a handsome clipper, built in Philadelphia in 1855. She sailed from New York on the 16th of December, 1859, with an American crew for the West Indies. She made a good run for St. Thomas, where she remained eight days, and then sailed for the Congo river. She took on board 603 slaves the night of March 21st. She got safely off the coast, and had not seen a sail up to the day of her capture. When they left the coast, the American captain and crew were super seded by a Spanish captain and crew. The former then acting as passengers. This cargo consists of children and young men and women—the majority being from 12 to 16 years of age. They are in a remarkably sound and healthy condition. Few cargoes come over in better order than this. The negroes, since their transfer to the shore, seem happy and contented. The sick in hospital are getting well, under the kind treatment they are receiving. The U. S. Marshal has charge of the negroes, he has placed them in hastily constructed, but comfortable cells, built expressly for them on Whitehead Point, a portion of the land purchased for Fort Taylor, but half a mile distant from the fortifications.

The crew of the slaver have been before the U. S. Commissioner, and committed to jail. Capt. Bannan was taken in tow, and the company to guard the negroes and prevent their escape, or recapture. A guard of marines from the Mohawk have also been detailed for this duty. The Marshal has added to the above guard, chosen from among the citizens, who are on duty night and day. The negroes seem to be perfectly happy and contented, and are singing, clapping their hands and dancing their country dances at stated intervals during the day. They are visited daily by the whole population. This encampment, in fact, is the only attraction on the Key, and it is worth a voyage of a thousand miles to see them. The women are, some of them, most attractive in person. They are generally clean, are but slightly tattooed and have, by no means, the repulsive looks and manners of our native slave population. They exhibit marked signs of affection for each other, and are ready to die for one another. They are perfectly obedient to the U. S. Marshal. Most of them are helpless (being very young), and will be for several years, and if sent to Liberia, will have to be supported for a long time by our Government, or the Colonization Society.

It was stated that hundreds of cases of deafness and dumbness are cured every week before the attention of the leading artists in London, who attribute them to the prevailing fashion of wearing the hair. The ear is covered and loaded with "a mas of bandoliers, horse hair, wool and other articles," by which the free current of air, indispensable to the healthy action of the ear, is impeded, and at last deafness is produced.
